DECLARATION OF DEBORAH BETZ UNDER RULE 1.131

I, Deborah Betz, am of full age and sound mind, and I do hereby declare the following:

1. I am aware of United States Patent No. 6,676,001 B1 to Chen et al. filed on March 20, 2003 that issued on January 13, 2004 in the rejection of the above-identified patent application.

2. I am the spouse of the inventor in the above-captioned patent application which was filed on July 25, 2003 before the issuance of Chen et al. and only about four months after Chen et al. was filed.

3. I observed Brian C. Betz reduce to practice the invention, as presently claimed, of the above-referenced application, or conceive of the invention and exercise due diligence in subsequent reduction to practice and filing of the application, prior to the Chen et al. issue date of January 13, 2004 and prior to the Chen et al. filing date of March 20, 2003, United States Patent No. 6,676,001.

4. He described his invention to me, as claimed, on or before March 1, 2003.

5. I saw him build his first actual prototype by grinding a nail gun tip to the desired tapers before March 1, 2003. I know that he purchased a Hitachi nail gun on February 25, 2003 for the purpose of modifying it in accordance with his invention. I saw him make his Hitachi nail gun prototype of the present invention within two days of this purchase.

6. I observed him diligently work on his invention and on his prototype made of metal, prior to March 1, 2003 and continuing for six weeks. I observed him making a prototype out of hard polymer and did fabricate this said prototype of his invention as claimed, in April, 2003.

7. In view of the foregoing, I believe that Chen et al. should be removed as a reference rejecting his claimed invention.

8. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, and further that the statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.

1. I am aware of United States Patent No. 6,676,001 B1 to Chen et al. filed on March 20, 2003 that issued on January 13, 2004.
2. I am the sole inventor in the above-captioned patent application which was filed on July 25, 2003 before the issuance of Chen et al. and only about four months after Chen et al. was filed.

3. I, Brian C. Betz, do hereby declare that I did reduce to practice the invention, as presently claimed, of the above-referenced application, or did conceive of the invention and did exercise due diligence in subsequent reduction to practice and filing of the application, prior to the Chen et al. issue date of January 13, 2004 and prior to the Chen et al. filing date of March 20, 2003, United States Patent No. 6,676,001.

4. I fully conceived of my invention, as claimed, on or before March 1, 2003.

5. I built my first actual prototype by grinding a nail gun tip to the desired tapers before March 1, 2003. I actually purchased a Hitachi nail gun on February 25, 2003 for the purpose of modifying it in accordance with my invention. I made my Hitachi nail gun prototype of the present invention within two days of this purchase. See attached purchase proof.

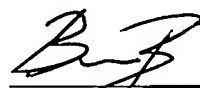

6. I diligently worked on my invention and on my prototype made of metal, prior to March 1, 2003 and continuing for six weeks. I decided to make a prototype out of hard polymer and did fabricate this said prototype of my invention as claimed, in April, 2003.

7. In view of the foregoing, I believe that Chen et al. should be removed as a reference rejecting my claimed invention.

8. I further declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true, and further that the statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
